*Pick your colors. Pick your pattern.
Let the light do the rest.*

Stained glass used to be the language of cathedrals and grand estates. We're bringing it back — to your home, your studio, your space. Design your own piece, choose your colors and pattern, and we'll print it. No craft skills needed. No fortune required.

Why do it?

Stained glass used to be the language of cathedrals and grand estates. We're bringing it back — to your home, your studio, your space. Design your own piece, choose your colors and pattern, and we'll print it. No craft skills needed. No fortune required.

How does it work?

Three steps from idea to light on your wall.
